

242815 Apply organizations code of conduct US1507

This Unit Standard is intended for learners in a work environment. It is designed to raise moral standards as a counter to potential or real corruption within a work environment. The focus is on ethics and the learner, and does not include corporate governance. This Unit Standard is intended for junior managers of organisations.

Benefits of attending this courses

The qualifying learner is capable of:

- Explaining the concept of personal ethics in relation to the moral compass.
- Describing the role of a code of conduct in a work environment, according to ethical principles.
- Upholding the code of conduct within the work team.

Course Options

- Classroom Facilitated – can be conducted on-site. Talk to us about this option
- Public courses – check the latest schedule for dates
- Digital Blended Learning – Download your text books and attend revision sessions
- Self-study – Download your Text books and assignments and complete at your own pace
- Customised – all learning materials can be customised to include internal SOP's

Who should attend and prerequisites

Learners should be competent in Communication and Mathematical Literacy at NQF Level 3.

How to Book

Complete the form on our website to enquire about this course and make a booking.

Course Outline – Key Learning Points

- Explain the concept of ethics in relation to the 'moral compass'.
- Describe the role of a code of conduct in a work environment according to ethical principles.
- Uphold the code of conduct within the work team.

Accreditation and Assessment

MerSETA Unit Standard: NLRD242815

This unit standard is on NQF Level 4 and has 5 credits.

Delegates are required to submit a Portfolio of Evidence (POE) and Final Summative Assessment (FSA) results in order to be accredited against this Unit Standard.

Duration and delivery options

This course is conducted over 1 day.

Where to next..?

After completing this course your next learning opportunities include:

- Supervisory and Leadership Skills
- Quality Management

About BIZZCO

BIZZCO is an accredited training provider with MerSETA and TETA. We specialise in providing training and skills development services for the Supply Chain and Operations environment. We have a number of services specially designed to enhance the performance of your Supply Chain teams.

Why not try our Competency Assessment to measure the skills gaps in your Supply Chain? Our website has more information about this service.